Call for Speakers

We are planning webinars or training sessions on the topics listed below and would like to hear from anyone interested in sharing their knowledge with the community. We have a team that creates the slides based on speaker input so the lift is not a big one--usually just a few short planning sessions.

Current topics:

Ethics of AI

Collaboration

Project Management

Change Management

User Experience/Design

Accessibility

Strategic Planning

Data Visualization

If you have an area of expertise not shown above, we would love to hear from you as well.
